

Worked from tip to tip in the most luxurious of yarns, Haslam is the ideal shawlette for throwing around your shoulders on cooler summer's evenings. Short row shaping amidst the open-work pattern gives a gently curving edge, as well as spicing up simple garter stitch.

Yarn: 2 skeins Posh Yarn Eva 4-ply (55% silk, 45% cashmere, 200 yards/55g skein), 2 skeins. This yarn is no longer available but the yarn content is closely matched to Posh Yarn Audrey 4-ply. Please be aware I used every last inch of my skeins of Eva.

Needles: 3.75mm straights or circular.

Gauge: 26 stitches/32 rows over 4" in garter stitch, blocked.

Abbreviations

- k: knit
- S: slip purlwise with yarn in front
- M1: insert left needle underneath bar between sts from front to back and place on left needle tip, knit through back loop.
- yo: yarn over
- ssk: slip, slip, knit
- k2tog: knit two stitches together
- st(s): stitch(es)
- wrap x3: knit stitch normally but wrap yarn round needle tip 3 times instead of once.

Notes: To create the openwork pattern, slip the number of stitches stated in the row (dropping all extra wraps, giving you elongated stitches), then pass the first number of stitches given over the second. Then slip the remaining long stitches on the right needle tip back to the left, then knit across all these stitches in their current twisted order. For example if your row says 'slip 5 sts dropping all extra wraps, cross 3 over 2', you will pass the first 3 stitches you slipped over the second 2 and back onto the left needle tip, then slip the remaining 2 back, then knit across all 5 stitches in the order they appear on the needle.
